Three Weeks Focused on English Pronunciation

Do you have trouble understanding Americans when they speak quickly to you? Would you like to soften your accent so that others don’t misunderstand you? Why not devote three weeks this summer to practicing American pronunciation? Every day, we’ll work on speech clarity and fluency so that you can begin the Fall semester with new skills and the confidence to speak up either in or out of class.

Sign up for ALI 252 through web registration!
If you’d like to learn more about the course, contact Mr. Barry Griner at griner@usc.edu. For registration questions, please contact Mrs. Thuy Pham at pham@usc.edu.